

Geography is the study of our dynamic and ever-changing world. The key dimensions of the study of Geography consists of physical, human and environmental, and the connections and interaction between them. At Brookfield School we provide a broad and balanced Geography curriculum that allows pupils to explore and investigate the world that we live in.

Year 7 and 8

- My Spaces
- Weather
- Antarctica
- Rivers
- Flooding

Year 9

- Natural Disasters - Hurricanes
- Earthquakes
- Tsunamis
- USA - Industry
- USA - Migration

Year 11

- GCSE
- Geology of the UK
- Global Warming
- Natural Hazards
- Ecosystems
- Field Trip
- Revision