

THE BROOKFIELD SCHOOL

DATA PROTECTION PROCEDURES

We will ensure that under the Data Protection Act 2018 all school personnel are able to access their personal data that is held about them. We believe it is our duty to respond to any request of access within 40 days.

We aim to protect the right of school personnel to privacy in line with the Data Protection Act 2018.

We believe that all personal data covered by the Data Protection Act 1998 includes the school admission register, attendance registers, curricular records, assessment data, class lists, reports to parents, disciplinary records, school personnel files, financial information, and strategic and improvement plans.

We aim to fulfill our obligations under the Data Protection Act 1998.

We as a school community have a commitment to promote equality. Therefore, an equality impact assessment has been undertaken and we believe this policy is in line with the Equality Act 2010.

Aims

- To allow all school personnel their right to have access to their personal data.
- To protect all school personnel's right to privacy in line with the Data Protection Act 1998.
- To work with other schools to share good practice in order to improve this policy.

Responsibility for the Policy and Procedure

Role of the Board of Directors

The Board of Directors has:

Data Protection Principles

Personal data must:

- be processed lawfully;
- be obtained and processed for specific and lawful purposes;
- be sufficient, appropriate and not excessive in relation to the precise purpose;
- be accurate and up to date;
- not be kept for a great length of time;
- be processed in agreement with the individual's legal rights;
- be protected against unlawful processing, accidental loss, destruction or damage;

- not be transferred outside the EU unless the rights and freedom of the individual is protected

Security Measures

We work in conjunction with the Local Authority Code of Practice to ensure that computers and servers comply with all up to date Government regulations and are secure with:

- anti-virus software;
- fire wall software;
- passwords

All school personnel are trained to:

- be discreet and confidential;
- consider the safe and secure positioning of computers;
- back up data;
- turn off computers when not in use;
- remember password access;
- lock filing cabinets and doors to offices;
- shred confidential material;
- clear their desk before they leave school

Disclosure of Data

Personal data cannot be disclosed to a third party without the consent of the individual except when it is legally required.

Requests for Access to Data

All requests from school personnel for access to their data must be made in writing and sent to the data controller.

Rights of Individuals

Individuals have rights to:

- know when their data is being processed, the reason it is being processed and the name of the person or organisation requesting the information;
- prevent processing which could be harmful to them or others;
- prevent the processing of their performance management records;
- go to court to prevent inaccurate data being used;
- be compensated if a data controller contravenes the Data Protection Act;
- stop data being processed for direct marketing

Individuals are not entitled to:

- copies of their references;
- information on pay reviews;
- examination results until they have been released

Grievance Procedure

Any member of the school personnel who disputes any aspect of their personal data with the Data Controller has the right to take up the matter under the school's formal grievance procedures.

Monitoring the Effectiveness of the Policy

The practical application of this policy will be reviewed annually or when the need arises by the SLT or Director.
